

International conference on INTERGENERATIONAL SOLIDARITY AND AGEING (the second CE-Ageing International Conference)

Congress Center Brdo, 5th November 2012

Conference programme

- 8:00 – 8:45 Registration of participants
8:45 – 9:00 Video projection of good intergenerational practices
Opening of the conference
9:00 – 9:20 Welcome address and cultural program
9:20 – 9:50 Introductory speeches by government representatives and representatives of the European Union
-

Plenary Lectures

- 9:50 – 10:20 Vladimir Špidla: Intergenerational Solidarity and Ageing
10:20 – 10:40 Teresa Almeida Pinto: Intergenerational Projects and Programmes: waking up to new challenges
10:40 – 11:00 Asghar Zaidi: Towards an Active Ageing Index
-

11.00 - 11.30 Coffee break

Roundtable discussion: Ageing and intergenerational relations in Slovenia

- 11:30 – 12:30 Anton Trstenjak Institute of gerontology and intergenerational relations: Presentation of research results on the needs, potentials and standpoints of people, aged 50 and more in Slovenia
12:30 – 13:30 Discussion
-

13:30 – 14:30 Lunch break

Presentation of activities in Slovenia in the European Year for Active Ageing and Solidarity between Generations 2012

- 14:30 – 15:00 Report on Slovene activities in the European Year for Active Ageing and Solidarity between Generations
15:00 – 15:30 Report of generations' representatives
-

Project Central European Ageing Platform

- 15:30 – 16:10 Planning of ageing strategies in Central Europe
Anette Scopetta: Central European Ageing Strategy" – A holistic approach for upcoming demographic challenges
Mateja Karničnik: Power of generations
Melitta Scherounigg: Cross-generational competence management
-

16:10 – 17:00 Conclusions of the conference

The conference will also mark the 20th anniversary of Anton Trstenjak Institute of gerontology and intergenerational relations and the memory of Mary Kržič.

